FIRST WORLD NATIONALISMS

Class and Ethnic Politics in Northern Ireland and Quebec

KATHERINE O'SULLIVAN SEE

A major study of the origin, development, and dynamics of ethnic separatist movements, using two richly textured case studies of Northern Ireland and Quebec. See's historical and theoretical analysis goes beyond previous explanations of ethno-nationalism to explain why Northern Ireland remains caught in sectarian struggle, while Quebec has made a successful transition to a secular state.

If the Government in Ottawa gets its way, they may take this magazine right out of your hands

The Great Depression; two world wars; a small, spread-out population; recessions; inflation; overwhelming competition from the U.S.—none of these could kill Canada's magazines...

...but the current Government in Ottawa just might.

The Government is considering demolishing the delicate structure of postal, tariff and tax-related incentives that helps keep the Canadian magazine industry alive. If this happens, many Canadian magazines will die.

Those that survive will cost more to readers and publishers and will be more vulnerable than ever to competition from foreign magazines that have the advantages of huge press-runs and lower per-copy costs.

Those that survive will be less profitable and, therefore, more likely to succumb to adverse economic circumstances in the future.

Sergio Ramirez' STORIES
'Fun to read, difficult to forget'
 —London's newsweekly South

They are the comic, unheroic figures of an honest, humane insider's view. 'The stories are masterfully told,' says Publishers Weekly, 'and will reach readers' hearts.'
 Blundering giants can't stop a good story...Not even with $100 million.

Begin your subscription to RI's world literature series with Sergio Ramirez' STORIES. Every other month you will receive a new hardback volume—the best of world fiction—at the subscriber price of $8.45 + $1.50 p & p.
 Forthcoming selections include the modern Haitian epic, Cathedral of the August Heat; The Laughing Cry, a searing Congolese satire on the Great African Dictator; and A Cup of Coffee with My Interrogator, ironic short (underground) fiction from Czechoslovakia.
 RI subscribers have already helped publish some of the finest of today's literature from South Africa, Chile, Poland, the Philippines, East Germany, Lebanon, China, Brazil, Japan and elsewhere.

Subscribe now for a good read and help bring today's most gifted writers into English—all at a very modest price.

THE $100 MILLION SHORT STORY COMPETITION Or, Can George Bush Write Fiction?

SERGIO RAMIREZ, Nicaragua's vice president and master storyteller. As man of action, he leads a revolution. As artist, he writes quality fiction: 'a product not even great navies and blundering giants can embargo' says the L.A. Times of his work. Now Readers International (RI) brings you his stories in English—lively reading for anyone with an interest in Central America or in good literature.

The N.Y. Times Book Review calls them 'biting and satirical short stories'. Ramirez' bodybuilding fanatic, baseball players, weatherman, down-and-out Santa Claus serve in no propaganda army.

RI READERS INTERNATIONAL PO Box 950, Columbia, LA 71418-0950

Please begin my subscription to RI's series with Sergio Ramirez' Stories at the $8.45 subscriber price plus $1.50 for postage. Send RI's latest book at the same price every other month. At any time I may cancel simply by writing to you.
